1788 BLUE LAW SILENCES GUNS OF GUARDSMEN

Law and Order League Protest Makes Bay Tourney Quiet.

BAND GIVES WAY TO SINGLE HYMN

Girl's Aero Flight Thrills 15,000. Disappointed by Listless Mimic War.

Any enemy who wants to attack and sack New York City must not do it on Sunday. At least, he must not do it with the shooting of guns and the playing of bands, or he may have an antique blue law of the model of 1788 waved in his face by the Sheriff of Kings County and the Police Commissioner of New York prohibiting the discharge of firearms on the Sabbath.

That is what happened yesterday to the state troops when they attempted to carry out the rather more laudable enterprise of fighting out a defence plan of the city. They got up at sunrise and marched and some of them rode, but all went in obedience to the orders of their commander in chief.

They spent the whole of the first five Sunday of the year, spoiling their week end or a day in the country, eating the dust and sweating in the sun, doing the best guardsmen know how for the nation's defence. But when it came to the climax, in the form of a hard fought battle of blank cartridges sweeping back and forth across the hillsides of the Sheepshead Bay Speedway and roar of artillery, that ancient blue law of 1788 came down like a wet blanket on the whole thing.

Shooting gallery immune.

It was a wet blanket that fitted nicely over the plans of the state troops, but not even a corner of it got over a shooting gallery nearby from which came the continual rattle of mercenary target rifles, whose poppings went on without let or hindrance to the business of the enterprise.

The troops were playing their big turn in the eight-day military and naval tournament at the Speedway, the profits from which are to be used for the celebration of the centennial of the fact that they are business men. Sunday was chosen as the only day on which it would be possible to mobilize them all on short notice, as would be necessary in case the city were threatened by a surprise attack.

When the Law and Order League, of which George H. West, of Albany, is head, and the Kings County Sunday Three-Parties Association heard of these plans they set about putting a stop to the whole thing. It was not only the shooting of guns they objected to; they did not like the idea of state troops parading with bands, either. The ancient statute, which now resides in the midst of the penal law as Section 2151, says:

All processions and parades on Sunday in any city, excepting only funeral processions for the actual burying of the dead, and processions to and from a place of worship in connection with a religious service, are prohibited, and are forbidden; and in such prohibited cases there shall be no music, fireworks, discharge of cannon or firearms or other disturbing noise.

Law Angers 15,000.

A $20 fine and ten days in jail is the penalty for violation of this law. These facts were called to the attention of the state troops by letters from Mr. West, and by telephone from J. Gardner Stevenson, counsel for the Sunday Observance Society. The first notification came on Thursday.

To make things certain, complaints were also lodged with the Police Commissioner and the Sheriff of Kings County. They both served notice yesterday morning on George P. Billenbach, who has been in charge of the hour for the battle to begin came 15,000 people, who had paid 60 cents and $1 admission, thronged the grandstand, eagerly waiting a life-sized imitation of what the nations are doing seven days a week in Europe.

Amid the magnificent distances of the Speedway they saw dun-colored bodies of troops being moved, noiselessly, like armies in a dream.

"They are only actors—they will begin to shoot when they theoretically see each other," the wise ones said, confidently, one to another. Then the terrible truth was announced to them.

Harry C. Spencer, the thunderous voiced official announcer of the Speedway, mounted the top of the judges' stand, waved a big red megaphone and began to reverberate:

Crowd Calmed by Announcement.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he roared, "injunctions have been served on the management by a pacifist society prohibiting the use of firearms."

Of course, all of Spencer's facts were wrong. There were no injunctions, and

P. S. C. Blocks Move to Dodge Them by Giving Up Service.

If the New York Central's passenger agent at Mahopac Falls, N. Y., is a true servant of his employers he will urge residents of the place to travel by other lines.

The upstate Public Service Commission recently ordered the New York Central to run two trains daily—one to and one from Mahopac. Since only ten passengers ride on these trains, the road has decided to discontinue the service.

E. S. Agor, one of the ten, appealed to the commission, which ordered that the service be continued as long as ten passengers rode. If a few of the ten can be discouraged the trains will be stopped.

JOHN D. PAYS NICKEL FOR GRANDSON'S KISS

Tickled to Think Youngster Knew How to Get It.

"He'll take care of himself in this world," said John D. Rockefeller with a smile as he patted the curly head of his grandson, Winthrop Rockefeller, in the Lyceum Church, at Pocantico Hills, yesterday morning.

Mr. Rockefeller sat with his son, John D., Jr., and the latter's family in church. At the close of the service little Winthrop wiggled a crooked finger in his grandpa's direction.

"Grandpa, I've got a big kiss for you," said the youngster, holding out an inviting palm.

Mr. Rockefeller reached into his vest pocket, drew out a brand new Buffalo nickel, and after it had disappeared in Winthrop's fist he received his kiss, with a hug thrown in for good measure.

WILL START SUFFRAGE MOVE FOR ROOSEVELT

Women to Open Campaign with Big Meeting To-morrow.

A nation-wide woman suffrage movement for the nomination and election of Theodore Roosevelt for President will be started at the Hotel Manhattan by a meeting of the Roosevelt women to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Harriet Vittum, of Chicago, of the Northwestern University Settlement, will submit a plan of organization and will outline a project for a National Women's Progressive League. Miss Vittum is prominent in Chicago reform politics.

Almost at the same time with the big national conventions at Chicago will be held the National Women Suffrage Convention. This will probably concur with the Progressive convention in approving Roosevelt for the Presidential nomination.

Mr. Roosevelt's stand for a Federal suffrage amendment has won him the support of most of the woman suffrage groups.

The meeting at the Hotel Manhattan will be under the auspices of the Women's Progressive Association, and the Eastern states committee—Mrs. Charles Sumner Bird, Mrs. Winston Churchill, Mrs. Francis Hyde, Miss Mary Ingham, Mrs. Herbert Knox and Mrs. V. C. C. Simkhovitch, and Miss Alice Carpenter, chairman—will have charge of general details.

PASTOR THREATENED WITH DEATH IN PULPIT

Has Alleged Letter Writer Arrested and Sent to Bellevue.

Threatened with death as he stood in the pulpit, the Rev. Dr. Worth M. Tippy, pastor of the Madison Avenue Methodist Church, had George Jacobson, of 1693 Third Avenue, arrested yesterday as writer of the letter conveying the threat.

This letter was one of a series Dr. Tippy had received. Yesterday Magistrate Murphy committed Jacobson to Bellevue Hospital for observation.

Jacobson believes the European war could be ended summarily if the clergyman would get together and do their duty. Dr. Tippy was asked to discuss steps to end the war, and threatened with death in case he did not keep the appointment.

Similar letters were received by the Rev. Dr. Arthur Jamieson, of the Park Avenue Methodist Church. Jacobson was trapped by detectives when he came to Dr. Jamieson's parsonage.

AUTO KILLS CYCLIST ON LAST ROAD RACE

Said Before Starting He Would Do Only Track Sprinting.

Floral Park, Long Island, May 21.—Joseph Nephth, of 1574 Lexington Avenue, one of fifty bicycle riders in the ten-mile road race held here to-day by the Century Road Association, mounted his wheel, ready to start, when he turned to friends.

"Well, boys, this is my last road race," he said. "After this I'm going to stick to the tracks."

Five minutes later he was lying dead on the Jericho Turnpike. An automobile had struck him, tossing him from the bicycle with such force that his skull was fractured. He leaves a wife and child.

WILSON TO TALK PEACE

In Address Saturday Will Further Out- line Views on Ending War.

Washington, May 21.—President Wilson's address on peace before the League to Enforce Peace will be delivered on Saturday. It is understood that it will be a development of his address at Charlotte, N. C., yesterday, when he said that the processes of the war stand still and that "when you cannot overcome you must take counsel."

The President probably will be introduced by ex-President Taft, who heads the organization.

TWO HUNDRED REPUBLICANS

ECHO T. R. CALL

3 Ex-Cabinet Members in Nation-Wide Move to Nominate Him.

COMMITTEE TO SEE ROOSEVELT TO-DAY

Men from All Walks of Life Join to Help Party Unite for Americanism.

More than 200 Republicans from all parts of the country have formed themselves into a committee to urge the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt by the Republican National Convention as the one who "better than any other man represents the spirit of Americanism awakened in the present crisis in the nation's history."

George von L. Meyer, Secretary of the Navy under both Roosevelt and Taft, is chairman of the organization, which is known as the Roosevelt Republican Committee. John H. Iselin is treasurer and Captain Arthur F. Cosby secretary.

Representatives of the committee, which has among its members well known business men, manufacturers, lawyers, bankers, editors, artists and writers from practically every state in the Union, will go to Oyster Bay at 5 o'clock this afternoon to tell the Colonel about their organization and why its members believe him to be the man best qualified to lead a united Republican party to victory in the fall.

Aims to Unite Party.

The committee is the outgrowth of the demand among Republican voters for the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt, the purpose of the committee being to organize this sentiment and make it effective and to aid the Republican party in going before the country "united and in full strength."

Included among the members of the committee are several delegates to the Republican National Convention and such well known Republicans as Robert C. Morris, for three years chairman of the New York County Republican Committee; Victor Metcalf, former Secretary of the Navy; Truman H. Newberry, former Secretary of the Navy; Senator George B. Wellington, of Troy; ex-Senator George B. Agnew; ex-Senator Josiah T. Newcomb, ex-Senator J. Mayhew Vainwright; A. Conger Goodyear, of Buffalo; ex-Roosevelt representative W. W. Cooke, ex-Governor Charles S. Osborn of Michigan, H. T. Stanton, of Michigan, a delegate to the Republican convention; Cornelius Van Buren, editor of "The People's Journal"; Ogden Reid, of Buffalo; Donald Day, of Syracuse; W. M. Ritter, of Washington; W. H. Cowie, editor of "The Spokane Review"; Frank P. MacManis, editor of "The People's Journal"; Ogden Reid, of Buffalo; Henry Reuterbach, Henry R. Joy and Hugh Chalmers, of Detroit; Alexander S. Cochran, and Alexander F. Nease, former Secretary of the Republican State Committee.

Headquarters at Biltmore.

The committee is still growing, however. It has headquarters at the Hotel Biltmore. In about a week it will open headquarters in Chicago. This statement was issued yesterday:

This committee of Republicans has been formed to crystallize the sentiment among Republican voters for the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for the Presidency by a reunited Republican party. The sentiment for his nomination is widespread in every state of the Union. The purpose of this committee is to organize this sentiment and make it effective, and to aid the Republican party in going before the country reunited and in full strength, with a candidate who, better than any other man, represents the spirit of Americanism awakened in the present crisis in the nation's history. George von L. Meyer, who was a member of the Cabinet of both President Roosevelt and President Taft, has consented to act as chairman of the committee.

The committee will be enlarged and will extend its activities to every state in order to bring together all elements in the party for united action, and will welcome the cooperation of voters in all parts of the country.

To notify Colonel Roosevelt of its organization and inform him they intend to do all they can to bring about his nomination, the committee will wait upon Colonel Roosevelt to-morrow afternoon.

The committee has opened headquarters at the Hotel Biltmore, New York City, where representatives of the committee will at all times be available. It requests all Republicans who are interested in the support of its work to communicate with it at once. Telegraph, write or call, addressing the secretary, Captain Arthur F. Cosby, Suite 120, Hotel Biltmore, New York City. The shortness of the time between now and the convention demands immediate action.

The following is a list of some of the members of the Roosevelt Republican Committee:

Frederick M. Alger, Detroit; Edward M. Angell, Glen Falls, N. Y.; Henry J. Allen, Wichita; Frederick W. Atkinson, Brooklyn; Frederick W. Ayer, Bangor; George B. Ag-

CHANCELLOR TO SEIZE ALL GERMANY'S FOOD

Amsterdam, May 21.—

According to German newspapers, the Bundesrat is discussing the "authorization bill," empowering the Imperial Chancellor to seize and distribute all foodstuffs, fodder and raw material needed for their production and to fix their sale price. All the administrative authorities throughout the empire will be compelled to follow the instructions of the Chancellor.

The "Berliner Tageblatt" says the bill will be adopted to-morrow.

The new German scheme for controlling food supplies really means an absolute dictatorship from Prussia over the whole empire. There is strong opposition from the other states, which hitherto have retained to themselves the administration of foodstuffs.

AUTO CRASH KILLS A. N. DALRYMPLE

N. J. Republican Leader Pinned Under Over- turned Car.

Alfred N. Dalrymple, of Newark, Republican leader, Essex County Counsel and one of the most widely known politicians in New Jersey, died in the General Hospital at Dover, N. J., yesterday afternoon from injuries received when his automobile overturned late Saturday night. Mrs. Dalrymple and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Snyder, of Newark, were in the automobile also, but were not injured seriously.

Mrs. Dalrymple's death has stirred Jersey political circles. An undisputed Republican leader in Northern Jersey, he was in the thick of a battle to nominate ex-Governor Franklin Murphy for the United States Senate and Senator Austen Colgate for Governor. He was to have led the New Jersey delegation at the Republican National Convention in Chicago.

Engine Stalls on Hill.

The accident occurred shortly before midnight Saturday. He was driving his automobile to Newark from Dover, where, with Mrs. Dalrymple and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, he had had dinner at the Pine Terrace Inn.

Midway in the ascent of a steep hill just outside Dover the engine stopped. The car paused in the roadway for a second, then began to coast slowly backward. Mr. Dalrymple threw in the brakes, but they did not hold. As he struggled to check the descent the automobile gained momentum.

By the time it reached the foot of the incline the car was making thirty miles an hour. One of the rear wheels skidded into the groove of a trolley track, the car swerved sharply to the left and pitched over a ten-foot embankment into a ditch.

Mrs. Dalrymple and Mrs. Snyder were thrown clear of the wreckage. The two men were pinned under the automobile. Struggling vainly with the engine, they then rushed off to signal a trolley car. All the passengers alighted and lifted the automobile.

Steering Gear Crushes Chest.

Mrs. Snyder had been pinned under the windshield, but was not seriously hurt. The steering gear had shattered Mr. Dalrymple's chest and forced several broken ribs against his heart.

Unconscious, he was hurried to the General Hospital at Dover. He revived for a short time yesterday morning, chatted with Mrs. Dalrymple and his friends and then became unconscious again. He died shortly before 11 o'clock.

Mr. Dalrymple was born in Washington, December 16, 1874. He became stenographer for a Washington newspaper correspondent, and in 1895, after having acted as secretary to several members of Congress, became confidential secretary to Representative R. Wayne Parker, of New Jersey. He left Washington to accompany Mr. Parker to the New Jersey city, took up the study of law, and in 1906 was elected to the Newark Common Council. During

ITALIANS LOOK TO ALLIES' AID AGAINST FOE

Offensive Expected in Russia, France and Balkans.

AUSTRIANS LOSE 8,000 IN WEEK

Capture 13,000 of Enemy as Main Line of Defence Is Shattered.

Paris, May 21.—To offset the great offensive of the Archduke Charles Francis against the Italian forces in the southern Tyrol the Italian military authorities are expecting a general movement by Italy's allies against the Austrians on other fronts, in the Balkans, in Russia and in France. The abandonment of the Italian advanced positions in order better to repulse the enemy is also being considered.

These moves are foreshadowed in a communication issued at Rome to-day, following a council of Cabinet ministers. General Paolo Monone, Minister of War, issued the statement, which, it was declared, would "leave the Italian supreme command perfectly tranquil." Direct action on the Italian front, to cope with every situation, is expected soon.

The latest Austrian official report records additional progress for the Austrian army against the Italians in southern Tyrol. The Rome communication, which deals with the fighting of Saturday, mentions an infantry engagement in the Lagarina Valley, where the Austrians threw three large masses of infantry into the fray, but were driven back, with heavy losses. Another attack between the Astico and Brenta rivers had a similar result. Advanced Italian posts repulsed another attack in the Sugana Valley, but afterward withdrew to their lines of support. The Austrian artillery continues extremely active at other points.

Dispatches from Milan to-night deny that the situation is disquieting to the Italians, who are reported rallying splendidly and holding firmly on the eastern front. These reports, which were received from the Italian front, deny the advantages gained by the enemy in the centre.

More than 300,000 Austrian troops are available in the region of the Astico Valley, according to reports, which add that a new strategic railway has recently been built from Bozen to facilitate the transportation of troops to the front.

Austrian Drive Along Adige.

The Austrian staff, it is believed, hopes to invade Italy along the Adige River Valley, thus forcing the Italians to abandon their offensive on the eastern front. For fear of having their main army taken in the rear. For this attack Austria, which had thirty divisions on the Italian front, augmented them by twelve, of which were drawn from Serbia and six from the Russian front.

Enormous losses on both sides have accompanied the great battles fought on the Tyrolean front. Italian losses since the beginning of the offensive have totalled 12,900 men and 257 officers, while the Austrians are reported to have lost 8,000 men. Of these, 5,000 wounded have arrived at the front.

Positions captured by the Austrians so far include several points on the Italian main line of resistance, according to Berlin advices. This was revealed, according to the dispatch, by the capture of an order issued by the Italian Lieutenant General Dechaud to the Italian troops to hold the line. "The order stated," says this dispatch, "that the main line of resistance, which was to be defended to the utmost, was the line from Monte Maronia to Malga. It said that this line would be reinforced on both flanks from positions further back, between Alpelegna and Baidodemarchi. The main points of support were Capisold, Monte Maronia, Costadagra and Malga Plovena."

Order Reveals Defence Plans.

"The order stated that at Monte Costadagra the Italian troops were to be maintained to the utmost, since the loss of one of these positions would endanger the whole line. It was also stated that Monte Maronia must be held at all costs."
